Arch Burnett was captured at Centralia last night after stealing a horse from Frank Hall at Catala and trading it off. He is now in the county jail.

D. A. Reese of Salina, Kans., owner of the Batchelor dry goods store, is arranging to come to Vinita if a suitable room can be found.

"A Timely Fortune," which will be the local at the Grand on March 15th, is one of the successful offerings of this nature. The "play" itself is a merry farce of such sterling quality that it would readily "play" effectively itself without the luxurious embellishments of songs and a chorus composed of stage beauties especially selected from the ranks of chorus singers. The songs rendered are catchy, and the play is of a breezy nature, refined, pleasing and abounds with good laughing material. The piece has a good interesting plot, and proves a good vehicle, a clever cast and chorus.

Little Raymond's Plan.

Little Raymond was fond of tomatoes. His mother always insisted that he not ask for a second helping, especially when there were strangers present. One day the family had a young man as a dinner guest and he and the small boy of the family got real chummy before dinner. Along about dinner time Raymond cornered the young man and said, in a whisper: "Say, do you like tomatoes?" The young man thought that was a strange question, but he smilingly admitted that he was not overfond of them. "Well, you sit next to me at the table and don't tell mamma that you don't like 'em. Then when I eat mine I'll just reach over and take yours."

In an Up-to-Date Town.

R. G. Knox, former pastor of Troub Memorial church, now has a charge in a town in Colorado. Though they have been in Colorado only a month Mrs. Knox has already adopted the personal pronoun in speaking of the town. She also seems to possess originality of expression. In writing to a friend here she said: "We are the county seat and an up-to-date town in every respect. Since writing you last we have had one murder, one suicide, one death by a gun going off that wasn't loaded, and quite a number of other social affairs."—In: dlanapolis News.

Cheering Him Up.

"Just before his departure for Spain," said the magazine editor, "I dined with Mr. Howells in his Half Moon street apartment in London. He told us all about his phenomenal sales. Then—fishing for compliments, you know—he sighed and said, 'I grow richer and richer, but, all the same, I think my work is falling off. My new work is not so good as my old.' 'Oh, nonsense!' said Mr. Howells. 'You write just as well as you ever did, my boy. Your taste is improving—that is all.'"—Christian Register.

Time for Profit-Taking.

This little conversation, quoted in the Chicago Tribune, shows how the man of theory can often come to the assistance of his purely practical brother: Stock Exchange Man (fanning himself)—Business? There isn't any! What can you do when the mercury is up among the nineties? The Professor—I should think that would be just the time to sell mercury.

Expert on Rugs and Tapestries.

Mme. Emmanuel Havenith, wife of the Belgian minister to Washington, is an expert on rugs and tapestries, having made a study of them during the four years that her husband was minister to Persia, residing at Teheran. Her father was one of the best known amateur collectors of rugs and tapestries, having the finest individual collection of Flemish tapestries in the world.

Good Reason.

A certain Mr. Thelwall, who was on trial at the Old Bailey for high treason, during the evidence for the prosecution wrote the following note and sent it to his counsel: "Mr. Erskine, I am determined to plead my case myself." Mr. E. wrote under it, "If you do, you will be hanged." To which T. immediately returned this reply: "I'll be hanged if I do."

Should Be Looked Into.

A New York doctor complains that babies are being loved to death. Ladies who are in the habit of giving their babies over wholly to the nurses should look into this.

Burdens of Liberty.

The men and women who are strong, wise and free are those upon whom the burdens of the world are laid. The tasks of the slave are nothing compared with those that come with liberty.—The Christian Register.

Philosopher's Happy Belief.

I have grown to believe that the one thing worth aiming at is simplicity of heart and life; that the world is a very beautiful place; that congenial labor is the secret of happiness.—A. Benson.

Very Serious

It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine—

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not imitate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale than all others combined.
